ASSAULTED WHEN AT WORK (PAPERBACK)

Independently Published, United States, 2019. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. When Lila decides to pull off a great career, she is often sought after at her workplace. She is an ambitious lady and aspires to bask in an exorbitant lifestyle and therefore she has to live up to many expectations too. At the start of her career, her boss makes her yield to his demands. In due course, she is greatly inspired by stories of many successful women so she learns nurturing a good intimacy with the key players of her office. Once she also thinks of breaking ties with her husband and getting spliced with a past friend who works in the United States as a software engineer. In essence, she desires to break away from a terrible life in Delhi. Later, she chances upon a parliamentarian who is a minister of state in the Union Government. With his help, she nails down a number of achievements in her life but at the same time she has to oblige him a number of times. The society is full of dirty old men and mostly they are overbearing. The middle-aged perverts are tickled pink when they see whitish attractive girls in fanciful garments. At will, moguls and key players of an industry exercise power owing to their positions and wealth. In actual fact, they are carried away with dreams of enjoying another round of honeymoon with young and chic girls of modern era. For that matter, young ladies like Lila often experience physical and psychological assault. They are often abused when they are at work. Two Lila leaves the residence of the parliamentarian in a minute and drives to reach her new destination-she has been instructed to do so. She pays eleven thousand rupees plus taxes for booking a suite...
